Chapter 1 by NeedToWander

This story is set in the same place/time as my other story: Darkness

There was nothing, though there was still hope. Hope sought out those who believed in it.

Hope sought out me.

"Daniel, please pick up... fuck's sake, please!" The year was 2018, and the world had gone to complete hell. The world was plunged into darkness, cold and death. Society had fallen, so had most of our once beautiful planet. Daniel, my brother, had went out the bunker with two others to get supplies.

It's been two days and they haven't come back.
